Strategic Planning for Your Organization – Webinar Series

Date and Time: Thursday, April 3 10:00 am - 11:30 am

A Free Webinar Training Series For Not-for-Profit Organizations

This free train-the-trainer webinar series is designed for organizations to gain valuable skills and tools to facilitate their own strategic planning. Based on the Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs' Strategic Planning Resource manual, this step-by-step interactive webinar series will help organizations improve their effectiveness, strengthen their volunteer leadership skills, and build a network of volunteers and leaders to support each other.

We are looking for organizations that:

- are willing to participate in the strategic planning process
- have commitment from the Board of Directors
- have more than one person from the organization that can participate in the training
- are not in a crisis

At the completion of the program, each organization will have:

- experience in facilitating the strategic planning process, and volunteers trained to maintain it
- access to a network of support for continued organizational development
- volunteers that have developed leadership skills

Homework is essential to successfully completing the program. After each session, your team will go back to your organization to:

- present the information received in the program session
- facilitate that stage in the strategic planning process

- get input and ownership from the board
- gather information and input for the next stage

Webinars will be 90 minutes:

Session dates/times	Stages/Topics
Session 1 – February 20, 2025 10am-11:30am	– Introduction to strategic planning & community economic development
Session 2 – March 6, 2025 10am-11:30am	– Develop vision and mission
Session 3 – March 20, 2025 10am-11:30am	– Collect and analyze information – Develop goals
Session 4 – April 3, 2025 10am-11:30am	– Performance measures & action plans – Implement and monitor

PAULY SHORE

Date and Time: Friday, April 4 8:00 pm - 10:00 pm

Address: FLATO Academy Theatre

Legendary comedian, actor, and podcaster Pauly Shore has been a household name since the 90s when his MTV show Totally Pauly ran for six years. The fan favorite series led to an HBO comedy special and starring roles in cult classic films, Jury Duty, Bio-Dome, and Encino Man. Shore most recently starred in Lionsgate's raunchy comedy film Guest House. Other recent projects include Adam Sandler's Sandy Wexler, Dreamworks' Pinocchio: A True Story, and the indie feature How it Ends starring Whitney Cummings, Olivia Wilde, and Nick Kroll.

October 2023, Shore launched his new late-night variety style show, The Jam in the Van Show hosted by Pauly Shore. The show brings Pauly back to his MTV roots, with guests from the worlds of entertainment, music, and social media colliding weekly.

His 2014 documentary, Pauly Shore Stands Alone, that followed his tour through cold and obscure Wisconsin towns, won Best Documentary at the Downtown LA Film Festival and an American Cinema Editors Award for Best Documentary. Shore is currently working on a new documentary of his life spanning the 70s, 80s, and 90s, along with a memoir entitled How'd You Expect Me to Turn Out.

In recent months, Pauly's vibrant online fanbase has issued calls for the actor to take on the role of beloved fitness guru, Richard Simmons. Inspired by memes, an undeniable resemblance, and Pauly's own Sweating With the Witez' content series, this biopic-in-the-making is one to watch.

Module Four - How to be a Voice for Agriculture - Durham Agriculture Leadership Program

Date and Time: Tuesday, April 8 12:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: Nestleton Community Centre 3971 Ontario 7A Nestleton Station, ON L0B 1L0

Durham Agriculture Leadership Program

Learn about a variety of topics that will help you empower and lead your farm business (and the organizations you are a part of) to new heights. Take advantage of the opportunity to hear from and talk with speakers from across the province, country, and North America. They will address relevant topics and important skills in agricultural leadership.

Module Four: How to be a Voice for Agriculture Tuesday, April 8, 12 p.m. to 4 p.m.

This session will inspire and teach participants how to tell their story and make connections with their audience. This includes how to be memorable when telling your agriculture story to the general public, and how to have a clear message when communicating with decision makers on behalf of the industry, your business, organization, etc. This session will be led by influential experts in agriculture communications and government relations. The list of speakers can be found in the agenda section of this page.

Registration closes April 8, 2025

The Durham Agriculture Leadership Program will bring in top level speakers to address important topics in agriculture leadership. The program consists of four afternoon modules from January to April, and networking opportunities. Take advantage of this unique chance to connect with other leaders in our community and beyond, to lead your agri-business into the future.

Guests are welcome to attend single or multiple sessions. Multi-day tickets are available for a limited time. Participants will need to register for each module individually if the multi-day pass is not selected at checkout.

All modules are taking place at the Nestleton Community Center, near Port Perry. Spaces are limited and lunch will be provided. Please ensure that you provide any dietary or accessibility requirements when you complete your registration.

This program is tailored to those with agricultural experience.

Modules

Module One: Agricultural Challenges and Opportunities from a Global Perspective Tuesday, January 28, 12 p.m. to 4 p.m.

The first session starts from the top by looking at agriculture from a global perspective, to understand the impacts of global economics, and key challenges and opportunities our industry faces. Participants will learn how these factors influence agriculture business. Discussion includes global business economics, Canada's role in global agriculture, and what does this mean for Durham Region farmers. The module speakers are listed in the Agenda section.

Module Two: Effective Communication in Business and Beyond: Working with Different Personalities Tuesday, February 25, 12 p.m. to 4 p.m.

The session will feature "tools for talking about tough issues," how to improve conflict dynamics for better risk management, and how to run a meaningful business meeting. Understanding how to effectively communicate and work with different personalities is important in family business. The module speakers are listed in the Agenda section.

Module Three: Leading a Resilient Agri-business Tuesday, March 25, 12 p.m. to 4 p.m.

This session is where business and leadership intersect. Discussions will focus on examples and tools for making good business decisions - considering both the people and business aspects. Participants will put emphasis on leading their business into the future based on what they have heard in the previous modules. This session focuses on where leadership and business skills merge, leading you to success. Official speaker announcements to come.

Module Four: How to be a Voice for Agriculture Tuesday, April 8, 12 p.m. to 4 p.m.

This session will inspire and teach participants how to tell their story and make connections with their audience. This includes how to be memorable when telling your agriculture story to the general public, and how to have a clear message when communicating with decision makers on behalf of the industry, your business, organization, etc. This session will be led by influential experts in agriculture communications and government relations. The list of speakers can be found in the agenda section of this page.

Agriculture Network of Kawartha Lakes Summit

Date and Time: Thursday, April 10 9:00 am - 1:00 pm

Address: Little Britain Community Centre

You are invited to the Agriculture Network of Kawartha Lakes Summit to connect with other agricultural organizations and agri-businesses.

Please join us for a gathering of board members of the local farm organizations and reps from agri-businesses within Kawartha Lakes. This meeting is a great opportunity to network between agricultural organizations and businesses, share what you are working on. What are your challenges, ideas for strengthen your organizations and the agricultural sector, and learn from each other. Whether you're a seasoned board member or just starting out, everyone is welcome! Let's come together in a way we haven't done for years. This annual networking day is aimed at improving awareness, and communication between our agricultural organizations in Kawartha Lakes, and to step up as leaders to think collaboratively about ways to improve the sector as a whole.

Each organization will have the chance to share what they have done recently, and what is upcoming. What are your challenges as a board, but also, what are the challenges your members are facing, and how can our agriculture sector be improved?

We will hear about the recent agricultural impact study, review recent activities to grow the sector, and tips and tricks to help your agricultural board go from surviving to thriving.

Ideas and information shared may lead to group actions, and can feed into an updated Kawartha Lakes Agriculture and Food Action Plan. At the very least you'll get to know the other agricultural boards, and the fine volunteers like yourself who are working on behalf of your fellow farmers to make it better.

Please Register your attendance by Monday, April 7.

Unlock the European Market Without Leaving Canada

Date and Time: Tuesday, April 29 12:00 pm - 1:30 pm

Address: Virtual

Expanding into Europe is more accessible than ever for Canadian entrepreneurs. Whether you're a startup, tech company, or small business owner, Estonia's e-Residency program provides a simple, cost-effective way to run a fully compliant EU-based business—entirely online and from anywhere in Canada.

As global competition intensifies, businesses need smarter, more agile ways to grow. Europe offers vast opportunity, but traditional entry routes often involve high overhead and logistical complexity. Estonia's e-Residency program offers a new path forward.

Join us for an exclusive webinar to learn how you can:

- Register and manage an EU-based business remotely

- Trade with EU clients under a European legal framework
- Reduce infrastructure costs while expanding your international presence
- Leverage real-world case studies from Canadian entrepreneurs who've successfully scaled through e-Residency

You'll gain practical, actionable insights that help you tap into new markets, diversify your revenue streams, and future-proof your business.

Whether you're looking to grow, scale, or explore new operational models, this session is designed to help you take the next step—without borders holding you back.

Reserve your spot today—free registration now open.
